CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 21.—The Servian government's reply to the Porte's representations says measures have been taken to prevent bands entering Macedonia and a strong band which was preparing to cross the frontier has already been dispersed.

The Servian reply adds, however, that if the persecution of Christians and the excesses of the Turkish troops continue and serious reforms are not introduced, the government will not be able to restrain the popular agitation in Servia.

The unfavorable comment aroused by the appointment of Reshid Pasha, the former Vail of Beirut, to be Vail of Brusa, which is really a promotion, continues. The action of the Porte in this connection is regarded here as a challenge to the representatives of the Powers, especially to the American Minister, who, it is thought, is likely to protest and may possibly demand Reshid Pasha's recall from Brusa, in the interests of the American educational establishment in that vilayet.

Reports from Beirut say the appointment of Halim Pasha to be Vail of Beirut has caused much disappointment. The inhabitants expected that Nazih Pasha, the Vail of Syria, who inspired confidence by his conduct when he became acting Vail after Reshid Pasha's removal, would be made Vail.

He Had a Fierce Encounter
With a Wild
Italian.

LIVERMORE, Sept. 21.—Pat Coughlin, night watchman at Livermore, was severely stabbed last night between 9 and 10 o'clock by an Italian named Joseph Bonetti.

The Italian had been in Livermore only five days, having arrived from Italy. He had been carousing in the saloon of Marcel Lassalle and was ejected from the place. He attempted to re-enter and the night watchman was called who endeavored to persuade the Italian to go home.

Bonetti drew a knife and made a lunge at Coughlin, stabbing him in the neck narrowly missing the jugular vein, inflicting a wound four inches long and one inch deep and then ran away.

He was followed by the night watchman and some of the men who were in the saloon and finally captured about five blocks from the place. In the meantime he had thrown the knife away. He is now locked up in the town jail.

Coughlin had his wound dressed and is doing well.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Communications have reached the State Department urging this government to say or do something that will put a stop to the atrocities in Turkey.

It is stated this pressure does not emanate from the missionaries.

Officials at the State Department are reticent about the probability of the United States giving expression to the feeling with which the alleged atrocities in Turkey are viewed by the people of the United States but they said reports from Turkey show that the deeds really perpetrated in sections of that country are of such a character as to shock civilization and necessarily are of a deep concern to the United States.

The State Department today received a cablegram from Minister Lichman at Constantinople but nothing was given out regarding "except the informal statement that it contained no

alarming news and was in part con-

LONDON, September 21.—King Edward is reported to have approved the appointment of Austen Chamberlain, the Postmaster-General, to be Chancellor of the Exchequer. In succession to Charles T. Ritchie, Mr. Arnold Forster, Secretary of the Admiralty, to be Secretary for War in succession to Mr. Broderick, Mr. Broderick, the Secretary for War to be Secretary for India in succession to Lord George Hamilton and Lord Selborne, the first Lord of the Admiralty, to be Secretary for the Colonies, in succession to Joseph Chamberlain. No official confirmation of the appointments has yet been forth coming.

It is known that Lord Milner, the British Commissioner of South Africa, was offered the Colonial Secretariate.

Premier Balfour's private secretary informed the Associated Press that the reported cabinet appointments had not yet been made, and added that Mr. Balfour hardly expected to be in a position to give out the list of new ministers this afternoon. Apparently Lord Milner is still considering the offer of the Colonial Secretariate and thereto is probably due the delay.

Well-informed persons express the opinion that Lord Selborne will remain in the Admiralty to carry on the reforms he has inaugurated.

DEATH OF F. S. GIBBS.
ASHBURY PARK, N. J., September 21.—Frederick S. Gibbs, member of the National Republican Committee for New York, died today of an affection of the heart.

MARTINEZ, September 21.—Investigation made by a TRIBUNE reporter today into the cause of the death of the late Dr. Edward Dimmick of Oakland, who was found dead in this county a few days ago has resulted in the discovery of the fact that death was due to natural causes and that the idea of violence or poisoning having been used to accomplish that end is untenable and is scoffed at by every person who has had anything to do with the case.

The autopsy showed that death was occasioned by an alcoholic settlement in the stomach.

With this exception there was nothing in that organ showing that the deceased had partaken of food for some time and if he had done so, evidence of it had passed away.

This condition of the stomach super-induced exhaustion which tended to batten the final result.

The story as published in some papers today, to the effect that the stomach had been taken to San Francisco for the purpose of having its contents analyzed for poisonous substances is entirely without foundation. That organ of the deceased is still in this city in the possession of the autopsy surgeon.

The inquest over the remains of Dimmick will not be held by Coroner Curry until next Wednesday, at which time the facts above referred to will be substantiated.

The funeral of the young man took place this afternoon from the home of the widow. There was no demonstration of any kind.

ELKS' LODGEROOMS DEDICATED IN FORMAL MANNER.

Impressive Exercises Are Conducted By the Officers of the Lodge—Speeches and Greetings at the Session.

For some weeks past, Oakland Lodge of Elks has been in possession of its new $100,000 club house and lodgerooms but that possession was taken in an informal manner last Saturday evening. The club rooms are beautiful to the eye, the design is artistic, the furnishing luxurious, and the lodge room is rich, unique and perfect in all its appointments.

SOMETHING LACKING.

In the latter, it is true there had been erected an altar, the corner-stone of which was truth, while the super-structure was charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity. And yet, there was something wanting. That want was supplied last Saturday night when the quarters to the providing of which had been given so much thought, on the furnishing of which had been bestowed so much earnest consideration and in the erection of which had been expended so much money, were tornly dedicated by the Grand Lodge of the Order. The Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler, officiating as the representative of the official head of Elks in the nation.

GREAT INTEREST.

The information that the most palatial quarters devoted to the Order of Elks in the Far West were to be consecrated became the possession of Elks generally along the coast, and in its possession every Elk rejoiced. The news was especially grateful to members of the order residing in the progressive towns in the interior of the State along the bay shore because it aroused in them a desire to show their appreciation of the progress made by the order in this community by attending the dedicatory exercises and this desire was gratified to the utmost, as there was not an Elk club within two hundred miles of this city by which was not represented at the dedication.

STOCKTON BROTHERS.

This is especially true of Stockton, the Elks of which place came seventy-five strong, making the run to this city in a train specially provided for them.

San Francisco, San Jose, Sacramento, Vallejo, San Luis Obispo, Los Angeles and cities in the distant East also had representatives in attendance. These brothers, some of whom had been members of the Order of Elks for decades when Oakland Lodge was in its infancy, had all come with wonder, marveling at the achievement of one of the youngest Elks in the group in supplying a preserve and a paddock which are without a peer in the reservation.

REJOICING.

These visitors were glad in heart, in grace in tone and handshake. The prosperity of Oakland Lodge seemed to be an inspiration to them and impelled them to enter into the spirit of the celebration with the zest which was edifying and which characterized and that of the members of the home organization.

CONGRATULATIONS.

The officers of the lodge and the building committee comprising Brothers Reed, Capwell, present exalted ruler; Lanktree, Leavitt, Suelberger, Macdonough and Inger, were all congratulated over the happy outcome of their labors. Congratulations, too, were extended to past exalted rulers, nearly all of whom were in attendance, among them being George E. De Golia, Myron Whidden, Ed. B. Benjamin, A. T. Macdonough, Dr. O. D. Hamlin, George W. Reed, H. A. Melvin and G. R. Lukens, of these Messrs. De Golia, Reed and Melvin served two years each.

RECIPROCITY.

There was a reciprocal feeling of brotherly love and gratitude displayed by the local Elks towards those from abroad. Figuratively speaking, the lodge room doors opened wide to receive them. They were welcomed with brotherly affection. A ladder with an inexhaustible supply of substantials for refreshment and a limitless libation, to brotherly love were opened to their view. It is needless to say that its good appetite attends good cheer, the cuisine had justice done it and many a vociferous libation was poured.

AN ALLY TO FRATERNITY.

The principle of brotherhood, of course always conduces to elasticity of spirit but Saturday night, additional was Saturday night, additional inspiration was found in the appearance of J. H. Mathews imposed a stone of the quarters in which the festivity took place.

In the club rooms the completeness of everything and in the lodge room the neatness and richness of detail shone with special attractiveness under a flood of silvery light. In these was a garniture of flowers, but there was an absence of profusion and the display of good taste which harmonized with the ideas of the guests. A very pretty effect struck everyone and that was the training over the electric sides and curve of the proscenium of delicate tendril of vine and a tender tracery of fern flagee work through which the light from behind streamed with gentle effulgence.

IMPOSING EFFECT.

In beauty, solemnity and impressiveness the dedicatory exercises were in keeping with the excellencies of other features of the night. The sole work was, in reality, a revelation and was applauded with a heartiness which showed how strongly it had touched the hearts of the auditors. The solo was "For All Eternity," sung by Bro. Founder of Berkeley and "The Pains of the cornet by Bro. Thomas Valenza.

Not less appreciated and worthy of appreciation was the concerted work of the Elks Quartet comprising E. S. Dowdell, tenor; Dr. Fred Wilkins, tenor; Charles Learn, baritone and Frank Ayers, bass. The selections rendered were "Heavens Praise" and "Heavenly Vision." These were incidental to the dedicatory services and were sung with exquisite feeling and effect.

THE SERVICE OF DEDICATION.

The initiatory feature of the exercises was a procession formed by the Grand Esquire, J. H. Mathews in the outer room. Members were first in line, marching two by two, then came the officers of the lodge, then the Grand Officers, as follows: Thomas Dunes of San Francisco, Grand Exalted Ruler; George W. Reed, Grand Exalted Leading Knight; Edward H. Benjamin, Grand Esteemed Loyal Knight; G. R. Lukens, Grand Esteemed Lecturing Knight; J. J. Hanlin, Grand Secretary; W. W. Landon, Grand Treasurer; Rev. W. Carson Shaw, Grand Chaplain and Charles Hart, Grand Tyler.

The usual ceremony of formal entry was performed at the door and then the grand officers and lodge officers took their respective stations. An ode, to the Great Ruler of the Universe to the business and purposes of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

PRAYER.

The members then stood and the Grand Chaplain offered prayer. He asked that the lessons they had received might sink deep in their hearts that the dedication might not be to them as an idle ceremony but a means of edification in righteousness, truth and humanity. He hoped that all might leave the place with good resolutions strengthened, thoughts enlarged, and hearts expanded in all-embracing love towards brothers throughout the land. He prayed also that God's protecting care might be extended over the brothers who should meet here, that they might be kept in the right path and guided in the way everlasting. He asked that they be made faithful to their duties and zealous in every good word and work so that when the solemn close of life came the soul of each might be granted eternal life.

MEMORY AND OBLIVION.

In closing, the Grand Exalted Ruler said the brothers should never forget the imperative command of the order's laws. "The faults of brothers we should write upon the sands, their virtues on the tablets of love and memory." The Elks, he declared, had high and important duties to perform, which if performed by all would elevate the character of man and hasten the coming of the promised day of universal peace and love. He hoped joy would be within the walls and peace a constant guest. He hoped also the walls might never echo with the sound of an angry word and that all the influences which would flow thence would be for good now and forever more.

There was then the singing of a final sociation of the altar, had formed the great central attraction in all forms of worship. Wherever erected or for whatever purpose, whether for sacrifice or memorial, the altar had, in all times, commanded the most profound reverence. Moved by that universal reverence, that in taking possession of the people which was about to be dedicated to charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity that the Elks' altar should

THE SUPERSTRUCTURE.

Grand Esteemed Leading Knight, then placed on the altar a white stone, symbol of charity; Grand Esteemed Loyal Knight Ed. H. Benjamin placed on the top of the white stone, another stone of pink, emblematic of justice; Grand Esteemed Lecturing Knight deposited upon the other two blocks, stone of the hue of the forgotten—not color, which typified brotherhood and upon all these Grand Esquire J. H. Mathews imposed a stone of the superstructure.

JUDGE MELVIN'S ELOQUENT WORDS.

Judge Henry A. Melvin was then introduced and was received with thunderous applause, from visitors as well as from home members. He was the orator of the evening and his speech will not soon be forgotten. It was frequently interrupted with applause and at the close, the speaker was given an ovation. The effect was as follows:

"Brother District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler and Brothers:

"Cruising across the sea of earth, the plow

Leaves the long furrowed wake behind her burrowing plow;

No cargo lades her, yet her cruise shall be

More golden than the gains of olden Argosy."

"Thus, doth the poet remind us that,

in the material world, there must be a stirring up of the plow of life, of self-sacrifice, the plow of our portion, we may see the laden trains rushing across the land, and the great ships sailing to the farthest isles of the sun, bearing the golden grain of the West, the rich corn of the Midland, the fleecy cotton of the South or the fruits and wines of our own favored State.

SEEDS OF TRUTH.

"In the moral and the social realms also men's souls must be prepared to receive the seeds of truth before there can be brought forth rich harvests of brotherhood and benevolence. Fortunately for them more fortunately for us, three, fortunately for posterity, Charles Vivian and his merry company found in all parts of this nation a soil ready for the seeds of charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity, which they scattered abroad at the inception of this order. These joyful but earnest men found the nation just beginning to recover from the shock of arms. The plow of action had deeply scarred men's souls. Gettysburg, Vicksburg, Mobile and all the great battles on land and sea which made that war at once the most heroic and most terrible of all time had but recently passed into history. The heroes in blue and the heroes in gray had laid aside their weapons and had returned to the peaceful avocations of life. The war was over.

And yet, and yet, they could not for get—

The many brave boy who fell?

"Men asked them selves this question:

"Can the tender verdure of sentiment ever hide the frowns turned by the pitiless plowshare of affliction?"

VIVIAN'S ANSWER.

"Vivian and his fellows answered, 'Yes' and time has proved them prophetic. You have been witnesses of their wisdom. You have seen the great principles of our order blossom and burgeon and bring forth abundantly. You have seen it throughout this nation, charity, rule as an angel's heart, justice tempered with mercy, brotherly love that writes the faults of a brother upon the hands, his virtues upon the tablets of love and memory and fidelity that shall endure—

"Till the sun grows cold,

And the earth is old,

And the leaves of the judgment book unfold."

NATIONAL GATHERING.

The members then stood and the Grand Chaplain offered prayer. He asked that the lessons they had received might sink deep in their hearts that the dedication might not be to them as an idle ceremony but a means of edification in righteousness, truth and humanity. He hoped that all might leave the place with good resolutions strengthened, thoughts enlarged, and hearts expanded in all-embracing love towards brothers throughout the land. He prayed also that God's protecting care might be extended over the brothers who should meet here, that they might be kept in the right path and guided in the way everlasting. He asked that they be made faithful to their duties and zealous in every good word and work so that when the solemn close of life came the soul of each might be granted eternal life.

BUILDING THE ALTAR.

Everything was pronounced in readiness for the ceremony and the Grand Exalted Ruler said that perhaps there was no one thing in human history about which the thoughts of man had clustered with more interest and reverence than the altar. Before it, all nations had bowed. At its shrine, all had worshipped. There, all sects and creeds, no matter how divergent in faith, had offered their most hallowed sacrifices. There, they had taken upon themselves solemn obligations. Everywhere and in all ages, the hallowed as

After turning over a new leaf and winning a majority of their games from San Francisco, Portland and Seattle, the local team fell down last week and allowed the Los Angeles team to win four out of six games and thus increase their lead in the pennant race, while Oakland went back to last place by virtue of losing so many games. Seattle beat Portland on the series and forged ahead of the Recruits, while Portland fell back to hailing distance of Seattle. Sacramento did things to San Francisco and now the Stars are only fifteen points ahead of the Senators in the percentage column. Los Angeles lacks three of being 100 points ahead of San Francisco.

Drinkwater, Los Angeles' temperance pitcher, was unmerciful to Oakland batters in Saturday's game and allowed them but three hits. Aided by good fielding Drinkwater did not allow any of them to get even as far as third base. On the other hand, the Angels pounded Cooper and Devereaux all over the field and the game ended with the score standing 9 to 0. Corbett and Morrisman were the opposing pitchers yesterday and the result was a close and interesting game. Los Angeles made more hits and won out 2 to 1. "Brother Joe" was a trifle wild at times out was very effective in holding the hits down to the sum of two.

The three games played between Sacramento and San Francisco on Saturday and yesterday resulted in victories for the Senators. The Saturday game was a pitchers' battle between Fitzgerald and Hodson and the former was a little the best. Yesterday the bunting and hitting was good and Harris, the pitcher, by the name of Cooney. That individual was as wild as a March hare and walked the first five men up. The Stars hit Keefe hard and often but could not win out because of Cooney's wildness. Phil Knell was the doctor that administered the bitter medicine to Harris' men. The veteran was about right yesterday and pitched rings around the opposing batsmen.

Portland took Saturday's game and Seattle evened matters by annexing the game played yesterday afternoon. The latter game was played in the presence of 6,000 spectators who gathered to see the pitchers' battle between Hughes and Morris, the Indian pitcher. The latter was a disappointment as he was very wild and lost his game by a 10 to 6 score. Hughes was his offender than the Indian but not as effectively.

The chances of Knell's being signed to play with Sacramento for the balance of the season are very good. Knell demonstrated last week that he can still pitch ball with the best of them and Fisher is badly in need of a veteran pitcher.

TO BE FIRST PROVINCIAL.

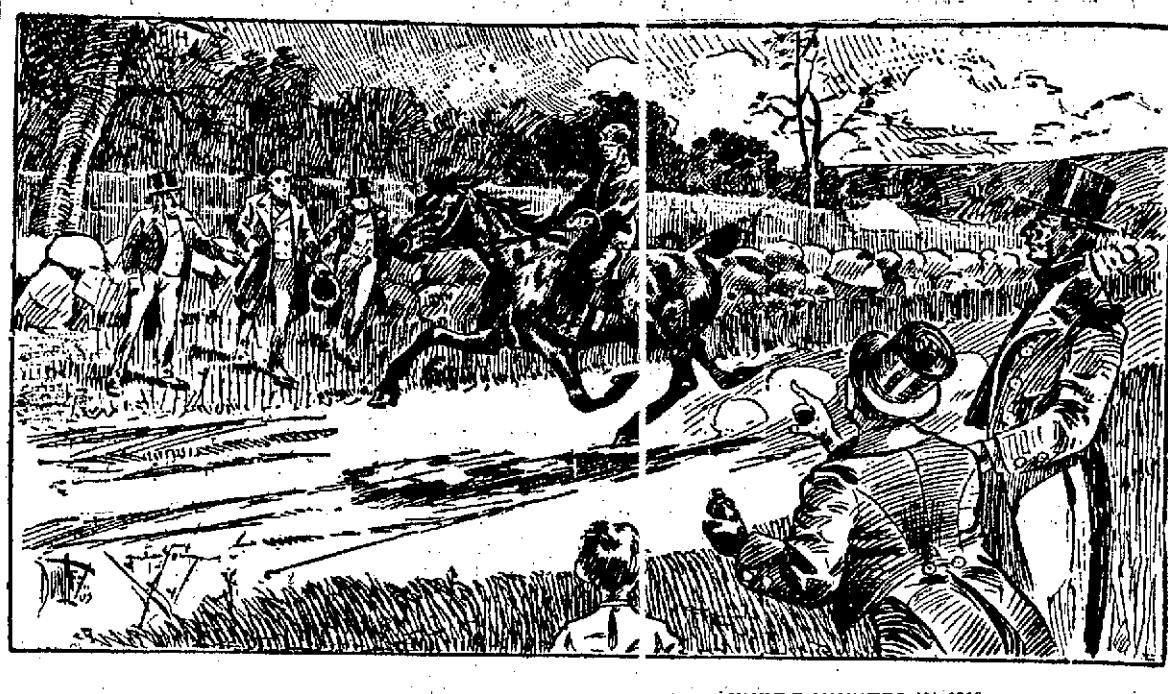

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Joseph Krotkis of Jersey City has been compelled to call for police aid in order to wed the girl of his choice. Joseph lived in a distant part of the city when his engagement to Poleno Karenwell, a hand some girl, was announced. The beauty of the neighborhood where she lived announced him as an interloper. They organized and when Joseph, gorgously arrayed, arrived in a carriage before the lady's door, he was greeted by volleyes of bricks and clubs from houses on both sides of the street. Joseph held his ground for a moment and then drove madly away. The crowd followed jubilantly but their rage was quenched a few minutes later when the carriage reappeared bearing half a dozen police men. Another shower of bricks failed to check the advancement of the law enforcement men, however, and the crowd, now joined by police and firemen, all. All were wet to the skin. They did not halt, however, and after a gory hand to hand combat at the doors, the marriage of Joseph and Poleno was duly solemnized.

TELLURIDE, Colo., Sept. 21.—A special meeting of Miners' Union, No. 64, held in Ophir, for the purpose of considering the question as to whether a strike should be declared on the Butterfield-Terrile mines, decided to call off the miners employed at the mines, in order to force the closing of the mill. The strike committee will wait on the miners and give orders for them to cease work at 6 o'clock this evening.

The millmen employed in the Carburetor-Monetzum and Silver Bell mills will be put on an eight-hour shift. The managers of these two properties agreed to do this two weeks ago.

INDIANA'S GOOD TARGET PRACTICE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The officers and crew of the battleship Indiana, which has arrived here after target practice off Martha's Vineyard, are jubilant over what they declare was the best shooting on record. The records already have been reported to the department. They say that, taking into consideration the type of her guns, she has beaten the Alabama, which recently set up a new world's record of the Florida coast.

With all of her heavy guns the Indiana has been shooting the best, but she does better work than any ship with guns of the same type. She has created a new standard for 8-inch guns, one point.

Seaman Trevor made four straight hits in two minutes and six seconds. All the shots struck a bull's eye about four feet square. With her old hydraulic 12-inch mounts the Indiana has done better work, they say, than some vessels with mounts controlled by electricity, which pointed to a length of argument followed.

"Lefty" O'Banion, twirled for the Brooklyn and allowed but five hits. He struck out thirteen men. Finch uniformly four hits per minute.

COL. J. E. FOX, the manager of the Girard Piano Company, is now offering to the public great bargains in pianos, embracing many well-known makes, which can be seen in the principal rooms of the company in the Central Bank Building, corner Broadway and Fourteenth street. Col. Fox, who is one of the most experienced piano men in this country, states that the instruments produced by his firm offer about the best opportunity for one to secure a high-grade piano at a low figure within his knowledge in this line of business. As Col. Fox has followed this industry for many years, his judgment is certainly worth considerable to prospective buyers of pianos. Undoubtedly this sale will be a big success and the instruments will be sold at once to eager purchasers.

CLUB ELECTS ITS FIRST GAMES OF SEASON.

EAGLE BOWLING CLUB HAS STRONG TEAM IN THE FIELD.

FRESHMEN BEAT OAKLAND HIGH SCHOOL—NO SCORE AT STANFORD.

The Eagle Bowling Club, which has its headquarters at the Palace alley, held their annual election of officers yesterday and as a result the following named will direct the affairs of the club for the season: President, P. Johnson; captain, J. T. Bird; manager, H. Kearns; secretary, T. Bird; treasurer, L. Campbell.

The club has decided to hold its weekly practice club rolls on each Monday evening at 8:15 and they will get themselves into as many possible competition for the San Francisco and Alameda county bowling tournament which commences on October 12.

It is expected that each club will make an excellent showing for the reason that it is not the very best in Alameda county among its members. Their representative team is composed of the following well known bowlers: H. Kearns, J. U. Bird, P. Johnson, L. Campbell, J. Berquist, T. Bird, W. Reeves, S. Batesman and G. Kennedy.

The football season was formally opened at the University of California for the season of 1903 last Saturday afternoon when the Freshman team lined up against the Oakland High School eleven on the Berkeley gridiron. The first game of the season was won by the Freshmen 17 to 6. It was a game of weight and brute strength were too much for lightness and speed. There was a large crowd on hand to witness the game and they cheered both sides indiscriminately.

The Freshmen started their scoring early in the game and found no difficulty in plowing through the line at will.

Kearns, who played right half for the first class men, was the star of the game and scored nearly all of the touchdowns.

At the end of the first half the score stood Freshmen 17, Oakland High School 0.

In the second half the high school players surprised everyone by the great defensive game that they played and during the entire half they managed to keep their hinder opponents away from their goal line. Kearns was forced to leave the game early in the second half owing to an injury and this may have had something to do with the Freshmen's failure to score.

The following was the way the teams lined up:

Substitutes—Freshmen, Klemischmidt, Steeds, Barton, Tweedy, Gabril, and Dyer.

AT STANFORD.

Over a thousand people saw the Stanford Varsity eleven and the picked Redwood Varsity eleven in a game played on the Palo Alto gridiron Saturday afternoon without scoring. Like all first games of the season this one was full of ragged playing and inexcusable fumbles but nevertheless it was intensely interesting to the many spectators.

San Francisco is assured of the pennant for the coast championship. Alameda's play was somewhat weak as compared with that of the players from the Varsity eleven.

The game was played on the Webster street grounds in Alameda and the margin by which the San Francisco team won was 12 to 8. Wilkes, Kortlang and Peterson batted well and did nearly all of the scoring. Following is a detailed score of the game:

HOW THE BATTLE WAS WON AT FRUITVALE.

Property Owners' Association Won the Day After a Lively Skirmish.

The remarkable result of the election for the town incorporation of Fruitvale affords an interesting study in political methods. It is a story of a comfortable majority acquired by the advocates of incorporation in twelve months of patient but unorganized work vanishing into thin air before a strenuous campaign of three weeks conducted in the most highly organized and intelligent manner by the Fruitvale Property Owners' Association.

This association was formed last July as the result of a discussion arising among a few friends. A meeting was held that evening and the association was organized by James H. Harrold, of Wheaton, Pond & Harrold, Senator W. C. Ralston, H. G. Hinckley of the Fulton Iron Works, A. K. P. Harmon, W. E. Glidden, John H. Spring, O. E. Derby, John A. Sanborn and A. H. Cohen. Mr. Harrold was elected President and Mr. Sanborn was elected secretary and treasurer. There are no other officers and meetings are held only at the call of the chair when there is business to be attended to. There are no dues and no initiation fees, the treasury being supplied by voluntary subscription. In short, everything is done with the idea of dispensing with words and getting down to deeds.

The membership soon included over one hundred of the most active and progressive people of Fruitvale and those interested in its improvement. Among those so joined were Joseph Play, John Lucy, W. C. Gethwell, W. A. McGee, A. L. Lorschbach, W. Scammon, A. M. Cramling, T. H. Bennett, Charles M. Champion, W. S. Dunphy, R. Turnbull, C. D. Bennett and T. L. Barker.

Three weeks ago a meeting was held, the association was convened and it was decided to oppose incorporation. By unanimous consent John Sanborn was delegated to manage the campaign for the Association and was given carte blanche in its conduct. Up to that time the advocates of town government had everything their own way and had succeeded in convincing the majority of the voters of the merits of their claims. The few politicians who were expert in reading the messages that came to one who keeps his ear to the ground, had formerly opposed incorporation, but had formerly opposed incorporation, came out bold in favor of it. But the opposition was to be heard from. Unique in its character was the opposition, presenting its arguments in short, terse sentences that a child could comprehend and which would appeal to everyone. The first were instructive and argumentative, but those distributed later were the deadlier—sharp, caustic and cutting, but entirely impersonal; for the Association refused to descend to personalities, which were the chief arguments of its opponents.

Consultations were held from time to time with those in a position to hear expressions of opinions and by the day of election lists had been prepared for each precinct showing how almost every voter who had ever registered himself for the election. Each voting section was in charge of a man whose duty it was to check on the names of those who had voted, to send carriages after those known to be opposed to incorporation and who had not voted, and to send to headquarters from time to time a list of all those who had cast their ballots. In this way it could be told at any time just how the election was going.

After the result was known a more surprised and demoralized crowd than the advocates of town government could not be imagined, for instead of winning out, as they had expected, they were defeated by a majority of four to one.

The association has many comprehensive plans on foot for improvements, including the rejuvenating of the fire districts and the establishing of electric street lights. As a result of its efforts, orders have already been placed for the construction of sidewalks that will keep the contractors busy for months to come.

BOGUS CHECK MAN MAKES A CLEAN-UP

SANTA ROSA, Sept. 21.—A stranger, dressed as a farmer, made a neat clean-up here Saturday by cashing checks to the extent of several hundred dollars among the local merchants after the banks closed. He drove up in front of stores in an ancient-looking rig and made a few purchases, tending on each instance a check bearing the name of a well-known farmer. The thing looked all right and now accommodating business men are mourning the loss of their coin.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE

William E. Dargie, President

THE PROSPEROUS SOUTH.

The good times "befo' the wah" are losing their glamor to the Southern mind. Retrospection is not so enticing to the Southern imagination as it used to be, nor is there so much disparaging comparison of the present with former days. Southern story writers are still weaving romances about the late war and the hunker period antedating it, but they are turning their idylls into hard cash. They are prompted more by business than sentiment.

As for the ordinary Southerner, he is not bothering himself much about what occurred before Sumpter was fired on. He is too busy. The South is hustling. The South is prosperous. It is building factories and railroads, opening mines, utilizing its water power, and turning its forests into commodities which sell for cash. It has put the old days of cotton, niggers, mules, mint juleps and politics behind it forever. Cotton is still raised—more of it than ever before—but it is raised in a different spirit and on a different plan than characterized cotton growing in what Opie Read calls the "idle, splendid, fitless." Cotton is not king now, but it's money. And it's business. Cotton no longer controls the South industrially and politically, but the South is engaged in the cotton business on a large, profitable scale—growing it, making goods out of it, pressing oil out of the seed, making paper out of the stalks, and feeding stock with the by-products.

Why, this year the Department of Agriculture estimates that the South will produce upwards of 11,000,000 bales of cotton, worth—including by-products—$650,000,000. Then Southern factories containing 8,000,000 spindles will work up a large portion of the crop into manufactured goods. The South will produce more than 3,000,000 tons of pig-iron and upward of 20,000,000 tons of coal. Also vast quantities of petroleum, lumber, tobacco, rice, sugar, corn, potatoes, wheat, hay and fruit. She is making steel rails, stoves, furniture, wire, paper, glass, leather and pressed brick, building ships, cars and twelve-story buildings—in short, making things hum.

In 1860 there was only one city south of the Potomac and east of the Mississippi that counted a hundred thousand inhabitants. Atlanta was about half as big as Stockton. There were no manufactures to speak of. The railroad service was poor and expensive. The mines were not worked, the water power ran to waste, and the finest hardwood timber was only used to make rails for worm fences. Nothing but cotton, tobacco, rice and sugar cane was raised by the planters. There was a rich, idle class devoted to politics, horse racing and fox hunting; a lazy, emporished class of poor whites and niggers. The change from that condition has been marvelous. Richmond, Atlanta, Memphis, Birmingham, Nashville, Chattanooga, Knoxville, Columbia, Augusta, Columbus, and scores of other cities have become manufacturing centers. The largest shipyard in America is in Virginia. South Carolina is the third state in the Union in the number of spindles in her cotton mills. The whites who used to be cracklers, and the whites who used to be planters, have gone to work in the fields and factories, and they are making the South rich and prosperous.

While this industrial change is being effected, a change in political conditions has also taken place. The better class of whites no longer devote themselves to politics, and in consequence South—in statesmanship—has deteriorated as the country has grown busy and prosperous. Men of inferior mental and moral calibre are coming to represent Southern constituencies because the class that once monopolized political power in the South has practically disappeared with the condition which created it, and the commercial and manufacturing class that has succeeded it is more immersed in business than in politics.

But the South is getting there all right, and in time her better element will again take possession of the political reins to the exclusion of the Tillmans, the Moneys and the Vardamans.

Russian officers have a characteristic way of enforcing the laws of courtesy. One of them promptly shot down a Jew in Irkutsk for declining to honor a request for a match for the officer's cigarette. It is true the request was accompanied by an insulting epithet, but then the law of Russian politeness does not include Jews. It is beneath the dignity of a Moscowite gentleman to be polite to a Jew, who is only fit to borrow money of, beat and curse—and shoot down like a dog in case he does not hand over a match when commanded to do so. The claims of Russian officers to be gentlemen will now be fully conceded.

In order to give the false report of the assassination of King Peter of Servia a more realistic tint, some of our enterprising contemporaries re-enacted the murder of King Alexander and Queen Draga. That made a part of the alleged dispatch true at least.

THE UNIVERSITY RIOT.

The people who are called upon to pay increased taxes for the support of the State University will no doubt feel amply compensated when they read the newspaper accounts of the riot between the Freshmen and Sophomore classes last week, in which fists were savagely used, missiles thrown and even corrosive acid brought into play. Several of the students were severely beaten and one of them is in danger of losing his eyes from the effects of acid thrown in his face.

What is the matter at the University? The frequency of these hoodlum outbreaks indicates that something is wrong, to which a stern remedy should be applied. It is significant that the worst offenders in the latest Donnybrook exhibition are Sophomores. The Sophomores were the aggressors, and by all accounts committed a large majority of the ruffianly acts. The miscreant who threw the acid was a Sophomore. These high-bred young gentlemen were not above double-banking Freshmen and beating them like dogs. A Chicago election riot could scarcely have been more disgraceful.

The question is, why was this thing allowed to happen? It was notorious that the Sophomores were going to rush the Freshmen when they held their class election. The University authorities could not have been ignorant of what was going on, and recent experiences have demonstrated what was to be expected. But apparently not the slightest precaution was taken, nor any warning given. After the blackguardly row has been permitted to disgrace the University, there is to be a perfunctory investigation, actuated chiefly by a desire not to find out anything.

While about it the Sacramento Grand Jury might as well have cited the Governor to explain why he has not removed the Board of Prison Directors. It seems strange that a Sacramento Grand Jury should have overlooked a bet like that. However, Sacramento Grand Juries are absent-minded in several particulars. They rarely are able to discover in their official capacity the faro banks that infest the Capital City.

It is true Lee retired across the river after the battle, but he was retiring before the battle was fought, and retired after it in peace and good order. McClellan stated in his official dispatches that his army was too badly shattered to risk delivering another attack. The result of the Maryland campaign strengthened the Union cause greatly because it proved that the Marylanders were loyal and would rise to assist the Confederacy. Antietam itself gave hope because it was the first time McClellan had not retreated after fighting a pitched battle with Lee. He had taken the offensive with his great antagonist, and had held his own.

Who remembered Antietam when the hurry call was out for troops to stay Lee's advance into Pennsylvania? The incursion into Maryland was not properly an invasion, but a march into a region supposed to be friendly to the Confederate cause. The advance into Pennsylvania was invasion, carrying the war into the enemy's country. It was there that the war of the Rebellion was decided, not at Antietam or Vicksburg.

It does not seem to have occurred to Commander Peary to look for the North Pole in Poland, yet it is a land of Poles.

The trouble with Tom Johnson's political sideshow in Ohio seems to be that it has run up against a real circus.

The explanation that a ship is only a dray propelled by steam or sail is illuminating. It is worthy of ranking with the discovery that water makes a poor roadbed for wheeled vehicles.

Of the two kind of fools the fellow who pulls his gun out of the wagon muzzle foremost is preferable to the hunter who mistakes his friend for a deer and kills him. Even the idiot who blows in the muzzle of his gun is a distinct advantage to society over the chap who cannot distinguish a man from a four-footed beast in the hunting field.

TIME, MONEY AND VOTES.

IN THE KINDERGARTEN.

The Grape-Nuts Boys at the Head.

A proud mother, whose little fellow leads his class in the kindergarten says of his babyhood: "My little boy was strong as any child could be up to a year old when he began to decline."

"He grew worse rapidly and in a few weeks food and other prepared foods were prescribed. He continued to grow worse. The physician said he would have to have more nourishment or he would die and he was certainly getting weaker all the time."

"We had been using Grape-Nuts food in our family so concluded to try it on the baby. To my surprise and delight he relished it and from that time it became apparent that he was gaining in strength. In a remarkably short time he had recovered his health and by the time he was twenty months old he was completely cured of all trouble."

He is now over 4 years old and in the last two years has used Grape-Nuts steadily as a part of his diet and as a result of the power of this proper food I now have a boy rosier and stronger than the average four-year-old boy and in perfect health.

"He is the youngest in a class of twenty at his kindergarten and in his games and memory work he excels them all. He is certainly a perfect specimen of boyhood now, physically and mentally. All of this I know is attributable to the food Grape-Nuts."

SAYS BOARD HAS NO POWERS

DISTRICT ATTORNEY STATES ACTION MUST COME FROM TAXPAYERS.

The report of District Attorney Allen on the communication from Assessor Dalton, which was referred to him for an opinion and which is in reference to the raise in assessment made by the State Board of Equalization, was read before the Board of Supervisors this morning.

The District Attorney holds that it is a matter for individual taxpayers to take up and that the board is not empowered to take any action.

He cites former decisions by Supervisor and Supreme courts to sustain his contentor. In the first, the case of Baldwin vs. Ellis, in 68 Cal, page 495, quoted a lengthy decision relative of the State board to fix the assessment at the true cash valuation and sets forth that the county board shall fix the rate after the State board shall have acted.

He cited the Pacific Postal Telegraph
Cable Company vs. Dutton, 119 Cal.
page 604, case as authority for the statement that the action of a Board of Equalization can be resisted by the individual taxpayer where the board has acted without acquiring jurisdiction.

In that case the Supreme Court held that the assessment had been excessive and held that the appellant had a right to restrain the Assessor from collecting the taxes.

The District Attorney also cites other cases where illegal taxes may be paid under protest. He then goes on to say:

"Under such circumstances, the board could hardly be the real party in interest for the purpose of legal proceedings."

"Of course it must be borne in mind that the right to equalize is the exclusive power granted to the State Board, and their action could only be attacked for the reasons expressed in the decisions above cited."

SUMMER AFTERNOON.

A drowsy glamour wraps the world,
But fitfully I hear the wail of wings
Where pigeons cleave the heated air;
And now the rasping song cicada sings
Shrills on my ear its monotone,

And I, a barefoot boy, alone.
Once more dreams through a summer afternoon,
With pulses throbbing to the lazy croon
Of bumblebees, low droning some grave tune!

Adown an ancient garden path,
With fawn-eyed eyes, in gingham pinafore, I go.
Betwixt fair rows of four-o'clocks,
Come ideals near a realized dream;

And where the sunlight softly streams
To fall the flush of yellow marigold.
The radiance of poppies, while the old Sweet story Nature breathes by us is told!

How shyly doth she wander here—
Here, in the realm of dreams, where I recline.

Anear the older bloom who loved!

So come she once, and pressed her lips to mine.

BERKELEY AND THE STATE UNIVERSITY

BLAST GAME QUICK.

HIGH PLACE FOR GRADUATE.

JOHN F. BOVARD IS CALLED TO THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON.

PLAN TO PROTECT STRIKERS

Mayor Will Act When He Returns From Napa.

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—Another young graduate of the University of California, John Freeman Bovard, has been called to a high post by a State university. He has received the appointment of head of the department of zoology and assistant in biology in the University of Oregon at Eugene, where he began his duties today.

Bovard is the eldest son of Dr. F. D. Bovard, editor of the California Christian Advocate. He graduated with last year's class from the State University, after making a particularly brilliant record in zoology. Last May, immediately after receiving his degree, he was chosen to be one of the party of scientists which went to San Diego to install the University of California's marine zoological laboratory. On his return this fall he was selected to be assistant in embryology by Professor Charles A. Kofoid, and has been engaged in special work for his degree of master of science.

BREVITIES OF INTEREST ABOUT BERKELEYANS

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—Doctor and Mrs. J. Edison Kelsey will depart Thursday for Chicago to be gone until November. While in the East, Dr. Kelsey will take a post-graduate course at Polyclinic Medical School.

Harry Linscott, principal of the San Joaquin Grammar school, was a recent visitor at the university, from which he graduated with the class of 1889.

Charles Kofoid, in German at the University of California, has resigned to accept a professorship in Iowa College, at Cornell, Iowa.

Miss Florence Kimball, of the class of 1905 at the University of California, has been called to the Nevada City High School as teacher of Latin and history.

James Dikeman, who graduated from the State University with the class of 1885, recently left for South Africa, where he will act as the mining expert for a British company. He will receive a salary of $15,000 a year.

Young Foy's injuries were dressed by Dr. Thomas C. McCleve.

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—Marshal Charles T. Kerns, to whom was referred the appointment of deputies to serve in the interest of the Pacific States Telephone Company, has communicated with Thomas Rickard, the president of the Board of Trustees, and by virtue of that office Mayor of the city, declaring that he would prefer to defer action in the matter until his return from a short vacation being spent in Alaska.

It was at the last meeting of the Board of Trustees that the application of the telephone company to have policemen appointed was heard.

The corporation at first sought to have its officers, who are ten in number, act as policemen, dep ting, but when this was denied, finally agreed to pay the salaries of special policemen of whom they sought the appointment.

Arriving in Berkeley on an early train the two boys began the search for game in the C. C. C. hills lying back of Berkeley. At noon they arrived at a bridge crossing Wildcat canyon, where the family of A. L. Hoffman of Oakland were enjoying a picnic in a ravine. The dogs inquired the way to Berkeley and after being given the directions, started out.

They had hardly gone more than a hundred yards when the report of the shotgun ran out. A moment after young Logueville ran into the Hoffman camp and cried out:

"My brother has been shot. Get some water."

Hurrying to the scene he Hoffmans found the lifeless body of the boy on the ground where it had fallen.

"I had just reached the other side of the fence," said Logueville, in telling of the accident, "when I heard the report of Clarence's shotgun. I turned around and saw the poor fellow fall backward on the ground. I hurried to him but when I reached his side he gave a few short gasps and died."

Coroner Curry of Contra Costa county arrived late in the afternoon to take charge of the remains. He was accompanied by Deputy Coroner J. E. Streightiff, into whose keeping the remains were delivered. The inquest has been set for next Tuesday morning.

Young Tweedie was in the employ of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company, having charge of the boats at the Market-street ferry.

BELIEVES OLD WOMAN INSANE.

Mary O'Connor, an old woman 70 years of age, has been confined in the insane ward of the Receiving Hospital on the complaint of Mrs. Carrie Carter, 677 Seventh street, who says that the aged woman has threatened the lives of the Carter children.

Young Foy's injuries were dressed by Dr. Thomas C. McCleve.

SECOND WARD POLITICAL EQUALITY CLUB MEETING

The Second Ward Political Equality Club is preparing for its next meeting, which will take place at 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Two-seventh street corner. Dr. M. C. Plum is to read a paper on "Municipal Improvements." Club members have been urged to be present and to bring their friends with them.

FRUITVALE RESIDENTS, IN AN EXCITING ELECTION, DEFEAT THE PLAN.

FRUITVALE, Sept. 21.—In one of the most exciting elections ever held in this district, the proposition to incorporate Fruitvale sanitary district was defeated. The result was not surprising though the majority against the measure was greater than expected. The opponents practically won out to 1, so the incorporation plan, which has been on foot for about a year will probably be dropped for some time.

In the seven precincts of the district about one-half of the voters cast their ballots. In upper and middlemost third, one-fifth of the votes were cast, and of these fifty-two were against the plan to incorporate. In the polling place at East Fourteenth and Bassett streets, the stronghold of those favoring the project, there were more than 100 votes cast, but even here the plan met defeat. The incorporation board had its origin among a few in the Fifth precinct, who have been living in the district but a short time. The old residents, many of whom own large tracts in the district, vigorously fought the plan, contending that by incorporating the tax rate would be increased, while with annexation the residents could have the benefit of Oakland's municipal government.

A large number of votes were challenged, especially in the lower precincts, where the larger and closer votes was polled. Both factions had carriages to carry delinquent voters to and from the polls.

Rocco Lavino was sitting on the steps in front of his home, when a passing Italian turned suddenly and plunged knife into his shoulder, making a deep wound. Andreas witnessed the attack from the opposite side of the street and was about to throw himself upon the stranger when the latter withdrew the knife and struck it into the breast of Andreas who fell dead. The murderer escaped and no information other than his name can be obtained from the wounded man and the police believe they are confronted with another of the frequent mysterious Italian vendettas.

The eighth annual picnic of the Elfricht Frauen Verein took place yesterday at Satro Park on East Fourteenth street. A large crowd of Germans spent an enjoyable afternoon dancing, playing games and feasting.

A rally and roll call was held at the Fruitvale Congregational church, the occasion being the resuming of the regular fall and winter work after the summer vacation. There was a pro-

YOUNG HUNTER IS KILLED.

CARELESSNESS BRINGS A TRAGIC END TO A HUNTING TRIP.

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—The common error of going over a fence with a loaded shotgun was the cause of a particularly sad accident yesterday afternoon when Clarence Tweedie, the fifteen-year-old son of Joseph Tweedie of 72 Pleasant street, San Francisco, lost his life in a shocking manner. The accidental discharge of both barrels of the lad's gun tore a gaping wound in his neck and he died in a few moments in the arms of his companion, Joseph Logueville, of San Francisco, with whom he had gone hunting.

Arriving in Berkeley on an early train the two boys began the search for game in the C. C. C. hills lying back of Berkeley. At noon they arrived at a bridge crossing Wildcat canyon, where the family of A. L. Hoffman of Oakland were enjoying a picnic in a ravine. FRUITVALE RESIDENTS, IN AN EXCITING ELECTION, DEFEAT THE PLAN.

FRUITVALE, Sept. 21.—In one of the most exciting elections ever held in this district, the proposition to incorporate Fruitvale sanitary district was defeated. The result was not surprising though the majority against the measure was greater than expected. The opponents practically won out to 1, so the incorporation plan, which has been on foot for about a year will probably be dropped for some time.

In the seven precincts of the district about one-half of the voters cast their ballots. In upper and middlemost third, one-fifth of the votes were cast, and of these fifty-two were against the plan to incorporate. In the polling place at East Fourteenth and Bassett streets, the stronghold of those favoring the project, there were more than 100 votes cast, but even here the plan met defeat. The incorporation board had its origin among a few in the Fifth precinct, who have been living in the district but a short time. The old residents, many of whom own large tracts in the district, vigorously fought the plan, contending that by incorporating the tax rate would be increased, while with annexation the residents could have the benefit of Oakland's municipal government.

A large number of votes were challenged, especially in the lower precincts, where the larger and closer votes was polled. Both factions had carriages to carry delinquent voters to and from the polls.

Rocco Lavino was sitting on the steps in front of his home, when a passing Italian turned suddenly and plunged knife into his shoulder, making a deep wound. Andreas witnessed the attack from the opposite side of the street and was about to throw himself upon the stranger when the latter withdrew the knife and struck it into the breast of Andreas who fell dead. The murderer escaped and no information other than his name can be obtained from the wounded man and the police believe they are confronted with another of the frequent mysterious Italian vendettas.

MAKES A LEAP FOR LIFE

YOUNG HUNTER IS KILLED.

Record Jump Made by a College Town Dog.

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—The common error of going over a fence with a loaded shotgun was the cause of a particularly sad accident yesterday afternoon when Clarence Tweedie, the fifteen-year-old son of Joseph Tweedie of 72 Pleasant street, San Francisco, lost his life in a shocking manner. The accidental discharge of both barrels of the lad's gun tore a gaping wound in his neck and he died in a few moments in the arms of his companion, Joseph Logueville, of San Francisco, with whom he had gone hunting.

Arriving in Berkeley on an early train the two boys began the search for game in the C. C. C. hills lying back of Berkeley. At noon they arrived at a bridge crossing Wildcat canyon, where the family of A. L. Hoffman of Oakland were enjoying a picnic in a ravine. The dogs inquired the way to Berkeley and after being given the directions, started out.

They had hardly gone more than a hundred yards when the report of the shotgun ran out. A moment after young Logueville ran into the Hoffman camp and cried out:

"My brother has been shot. Get some water."

Hurrying to the scene he Hoffmans found the lifeless body of the boy on the ground where it had fallen.

"I had just reached the other side of the fence," said Logueville, in telling of the accident, "when I heard the report of Clarence's shotgun. I turned around and saw the poor fellow fall backward on the ground. I hurried to him but when I reached his side he gave a few short gasps and died."

Coroner Curry of Contra Costa county arrived late in the afternoon to take charge of the remains. He was accompanied by Deputy Coroner J. E. Streightiff, into whose keeping the remains were delivered. The inquest has been set for next Tuesday morning.

Young Tweedie was in the employ of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company, having charge of the boats at the Market-street ferry.

BELIEVES OLD WOMAN INSANE.

Mary O'Connor, an old woman 70 years of age, has been confined in the insane ward of the Receiving Hospital on the complaint of Mrs. Carrie Carter, 677 Seventh street, who says that the aged woman has threatened the lives of the Carter children.

Young Foy's injuries were dressed by Dr. Thomas C. McCleve.

SECOND WARD POLITICAL EQUALITY CLUB MEETING

The Second Ward Political Equality Club is preparing for its next meeting, which will take place at 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Two-seventh street corner. Dr. M. C. Plum is to read a paper on "Municipal Improvements." Club members have been urged to be present and to bring their friends with them.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

MANY INTERESTING EVENTS ARE PLANNED BY SOCIETY.

It was interesting to society people on this side of the bay to know that Mrs. Lillie T. Yates has wedded Henry C. Lynch. Mrs. Yates was the widow of the late Charles R. Yates, cashier of the Central Bank of Oakland, died in July, 1901.

Mrs. Yates recently sold her home at 1325 Chestnut street and moved to San Francisco.

Mr. Lynch is a wealthy stock broker of San Francisco.

THEY ARE ENGAGED.

The engagement is announced of Max W. Koenig, a well-known attorney and notary, and Miss Louise K. Bauer, both of East Oakland. The wedding is to occur on a date in December, not yet fixed. The bride-to-be is a native daughter of this city, where she graduated from the High School. She is a daughter of the late Christian Bauer, who was a well-known local capitalist. At present Miss Bauer is visiting a married sister in Humboldt County.

GERMANS TO ENTERTAIN.

A three-act German comedy will be given in the Macdonough Theatre on Friday night, October 4. The play is entitled, "Im Weissen Ross," and will be presented in the German tongue by the Alameda Lustspiel Theater, an amateur company of young society people, the proceeds to be for the benefit of the German Ladies' Relief Society.

Instead of the usual orchestral numbers between acts, a special symphony concert will be given by a stringed orchestra of twenty-four young society

E-BY-BROWN RECEPTION.

The Eby-Brown reception Saturday was a pleasant affair, the artistic home of the Ebys on Perry street forming a pleasing background for the panorama of beautiful women beautifully gowned. In the long drawing-room where Mrs. Eby and her daughter, Mrs. Mrs. Brown received, the rich green of the furnishings was brightened by an occasional dash of red. Great baskets of ferns filled out nooks and corners and in the music room a huge bouquet of violet asters was the only touch of color. The wide veranda across the front of the house was made most inviting with rugs and cushioned seats.

Mrs. Eby wore a handsome gown of pale gray moire and Mrs. Brown was gowned in the rich white satin in which she became a bride last February.

Mrs. E. B. Bradshaw, of Guthrie, Okla., cured of a severe case by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary medical treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally prescribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition.

Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by derangement of the female organs, and which, while it causes disturbance similar to ordinary indigestion, cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has peculiar uterine-tonic effects as well.

Thousands of testimonial letters prove beyond question that nothing will relieve this distressing condition so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It always works in harmony with the female system.

Mrs. Pinkham advises sick women free. Address Lynn, Mass.

THE BEST WAY TO PAY A DEBT.

"Pay cash" is the bone of many men. But there was a time in their affairs, no doubt, when they could not have done so, as may be, when they were not able to pay $1000 but could pay $200 a month and not miss the money; and soon the debt is wiped out. There is no better way to pay a debt than in installments.

SUGGESTIONS TO BORROWERS.

1. Don't borrow too much; "enough is as good as a feast"—and is easier repaid.

2. Be sure you will be able to repay the loan.

3. Be honest in filling application blank. Many a loan, otherwise good, has been declined because some statement made by the applicant was found to be false. Answer all questions fully.

4. If loan is granted, furnish abstract of title at once. If title is imperfect, clear up discrepancies promptly that you may receive your money without delay.

5. Always sign a mortgage as the names show in the body of that document "Charles J. Smith" must not be signed "C. J. Smith." Such discrepancies often cause serious delays in concluding loans.

6. Make extra payments whenever you can on your loan in order to pay it off as quickly as possible.

7. If money is desired for the purpose of building a home, it is advanced in the following manner: One quarter of amount borrowed when house is up and under roof, another quarter when first coat of plastering is on, third quarter when house is finished and accepted, and the balance in thirty-five days after acceptance.

8. Enclose with the application one dollar for each one hundred dollars applied for, as a guarantee of good faith. If loan is rejected, money will be returned, less appraisal fee, usually $2.50.

9. Write for application blank to Continental Building Loan Association. Established in 1889, 301 California street, San Francisco, Calif. William Corbin, Secretary and general manager. Phone Main 1386, San Francisco, Cal. The largest corporation of the kind in the United States.

10. Write to Dr. Lawrence's Wonderful New Perfected VACUUM DEVELOPER AND INVIGORATOR with not patented improvement.

PAPER INTERESTS

MANY.

A LARGE ATTENDANCE AT THE MONTHLY MEETING OF CLUB.

The meeting of the Pacific Coast Rail- way Club, which was held in San Francisco last Saturday night at the Palace Hotel, was well attended. A large delegation from the West Oakland shops was on hand as usual.

The paper which received fourth prize in the recent contest was read. It was entitled "A Study in Engine Design, Describing a Rational Method of Design" and was written by G. S. Edmunds of Green Island, New York. The paper was a technical treat.

The writer introduced his subject in the following words:

"While directly for and with Americans can be built, it can hardly be said no part of the modern locomotive can lay claim to the design than the frame. From time to time it has developed, or, quoting, 'grown' like Topsy, by a process of strengthening in some cases and being forced to be pulled for the service it is intended, with others to insure minimum failures. In part it is well that it be thus, for, without the experience of past practice, the complex nature of the forces acting on the engine, makes an analysis with determination of the cause a problem so intricate that we might with reason question the original products of a mechanical engineer, however skilled."

In treating of the selection of binders, Mr. Edmunds made the following ob- servations:

"We cannot too carefully consider the specification of material used for the purpose. A blind bolt of comparative- ly good will naturally respond more readily to slight and slight degrees of high tensile strength consistent with ductility; likewise with the slot slot in the bar binder."

"Material: For material, hammered iron has a larger share of the majority, excepting in cases of very heavy forgings where cast steel is employed. The section used is the same whether of iron or steel. This may be accounted for by the commendable spirit of standardization prevalent at this period, but just why the slot slot reasoning should hold with new design is not apparent."

Miss Pauline Collins will accompany Miss Koenig's group of songs. To those who have had the pleasure of hearing Miss Koenig sing, nothing need be said concerning the pleasure to be looked for therefrom. She will sing Raff's "Ave Maria" for which Mrs. E. N. Elmer will play the violin obligato, and two Schumann songs.

Mrs. J. R. Scupham, the curate, will contribute to the assured success of the evening by giving a short talk, taking for subject, "How to Study Shakespeare."

THE WINTER'S TALE.

The Shakespeare Section of Ebell will have in charge the program for the Society's regular monthly reception to be held at three o'clock on the afternoon of September 22nd.

An especially interesting feature of the occasion will be the dramatic relief in costume, which Mrs. W. P. Buckingham will give from "The Winter's Tale."

As Mrs. Buckingham is a prominent member of the Papyrus Club of San Francisco and as this will be her first appearance before an Oakland audience, of this number of the program much enjoyment is anticipated.

WHAT SHE LIKES ABOUT IT.

"What's the moral of that story?" asked the young man.

"Oh," replied Mrs. Ka Flipp, absent- mindedly, "I don't know as it has one; but the immoral of it is just too thrilling for anything!"—Chicago Record- Herald.

In S. S. S. Nature has provided a tonic suited to every requirement of the system when in a debilitated, run down condition.

It contains no strong minerals or drugs, but is a pleasant vegetable preparation. You can find no better remedy for toning up the nerves and bringing refreshing, restful sleep when in a low state of health, or sick and worn out with work or worry.

S. S. S. improves the appetite, aids the digestion, and reinforces the system, and its good effects are seen almost from the first dose. It acts promptly in cases of chronic dyspepsia, indigestion and all stomach troubles, and does away with the uncomfortable fullness, nausea, shortness of breath, drowsiness and dizziness that so often come after eating.

S. S. S. is not only the best tonic but possesses alterative or purifying properties, and if there is any taint, humor or poison in the blood, it searches it out, and removes it. Many times a low state of health is due to a bad condition of the blood and can only be remedied by a blood purifier and tonic combined, or such a remedy as S. S. S.

If you suffer from debility, insomnia, nervousness, loss of appetite, bad digestion, or any of the symptoms of a disordered blood, nothing will so soon put your blood in good condition, invigorate and tone up the system as S. S. S.

LABOR LEADER TALKS

SCHOOL DIRECTOR ROGERS
TELLS ABOUT ORGANIZA-TION.

TODAY.

School Director C. D. Rogers, who, for years was State organizer of the American Federation of Labor, delivered an interesting and instructive address before the Men's Sunday Club of East Oakland yesterday. Mr. Rogers discussed the labor movement and its influence on the welfare of man. The audience was unusually large and the discussion which followed the address was very spirited.

Mr. Rogers took the broad ground that there could be no improvement in any condition of life until there be thorough organization. He cited the progress of the church, of men's clubs, of fraternalism, and in fact, every phase of modern life, to show that success had only been attained through organization.

"The best deal of the opposition to labor unions," said the speaker, "is due to mis- understanding. We are simply trying to improve the condition of the laboring men. We are charged with being arbitrary, but, in fact, we are at no time in any great degree, we are, in fact, a labor union. We are, in fact, a labor union, without some friction, and I think that the great revolution which is taking place today in the condition of the workingman is the most peaceful we have ever seen."

A few questions were raised, following, which gave the speaker an opportunity to explain many phases of labor unionism. The speaker said that it is unions welcome the organization of merchants and employers, because it was always more satisfactory to deal with an organized body than with individuals.

It was brought out that an unionism does not destroy ambition; it makes all men equal, but that it fixes a minimum wage which did not prevent an employer from paying less, when the circumstances warranted.

Rev. O. H. Hodge said, that in the organization of labor unions, as in that of the church, there are imperfections, but that they should each be judged by the good it does, especially the good it does so largely in excess of the evil.

President Walter Van Dorn proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. Rogers and stated that the subject was one of such broad interest that it would be well for the club to again invite the speaker. The motion was accordingly carried.

Three wrecks
in one day.

The three separate wrecks occurred in this city yesterday within an hour. In the morning about 9 o'clock, freight engine No. 1671, just coming in from Mendota, jumped the track in the West Oakland yards and fell completely on its side, tearing up the track and dragging with it four of the cars. The first of these, loaded with cement, was smashed to splinters. The other two which included a cargo of pigs, were not much damaged. John Hoyt, the engineer in charge, leaped from the engine in time to save his life.

Switch engine No. 1023, with Engineer A. Culvergood in charge, was ordered in the yards to haul the wrecked engine out of the yards again, but the switch engine also left the rails and plowed along the street some distance. It was not much damaged, but it required a wrecking crew under Foreman Ward to get it to the rails.

While the men were at work on the switch engine, Chief Engineer Englebrecht received word that two local cars had been bunted from the tracks at the East Oakland station and a third wrecking crew under Foreman Britton was called out.

STRIKERS WILL GIVE A PERFORMANCE.

Committee Appointed to Make Plans
—Meetings Scheduled for This Evening—Union News.

At the meeting of the Linemen's Union Saturday evening in Kohler & Chase Hall, the strike situation was talked over at some length. The pickets and the men are expecting a settlement in the near future.

It was decided to give an entertainment some time during the early part of next month to raise money for the strike fund. The affair will consist of a vaudeville entertainment followed by a dance. The following committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements: H. J. Baldwin, chairman; O. S. Biers and J. W. Thomas.

The officers a short time ago intended to have charge of one of the local vaudeville houses for one night, but satisfactory arrangements could not be made with the management, so they decided to give an entertainment of their own.

TONIGHT'S MEETINGS.
The following labor unions have meetings scheduled for this evening: Shoemakers, Bakery Wagon Drivers and Butchers in Cooks' and Waiters' headquarters, Eighth and Broadway; Teamsters, at 856 Webster street; Wagon Workers, at Kohler & Chase Hall; Eleventh and Broadway; Retail Clerks, at Fraternal Hall; Barbers, California Hall, 1015 Clay street.

NO ICE ON SUNDAY.
After considerable debate the members of the Ice Wagon Drivers' Union have decided to furnish no more ice on Sundays. A desire to attend church was advanced as a reason for deserting Sunday labor by most of the element which stood for strict observance of the Sabbath, and they finally won by three votes. The further business of the meeting was the election of A. J. Rose and H. C. Rinossa delegates to the Federated Trades Council, and the admission to membership of two applicants. One member was fined $5 for not appearing at the Labor Day parade.

DISTRIBUTED PRIZES.
Saturday evening Native Sons' Hall in San Francisco was gaily decorated when the Building Trades Council gave a very successful ball for the purpose of distributing the prizes won at the Labor Day picnic at Sheep Mountain Park in San Francisco. The large and handsome cup that on each Labor Day is the prize in the drill and uniform contest in San Francisco. The Shinglers' Union this year won the cup from only one other competing union, that of the Painters. Shinglers' Union retains this heretofore transient prize for three consecutive years, then to them would be accorded the undisputed.

The dance program consisted of seven numbers and the following committee deserves much credit for making the best.

IRENE ON SUNDAY.
The sand teamsters and the building material teamsters of San Francisco will meet in joint session this evening. Officers will be elected and the constitution and by-laws discussed with reference to merging all teamsters' unions into one organization.

IRENE SECRETARIES.

There has been some talk lately of the larger labor unions such as the teamsters, painters and cement workers hiring a permanent salaried secretary as well as a business agent.

The uniforms are indeed so much in size that the duties of the secretaries have become very burdensome. They make it a very difficult matter to attend to their regular business and the clerical work which involves a secretary besides.
